Derailed pour house

Description: LIBATIONS - LIVE MUSIC - NOURRITURE Long-term residents Todd, Lisa and Grant Gibson have been part of the Durango community for 24 years. As Bayfield residents, Todd spent many years as a volunteer firefighter, including firefighting at Missionary Ridge, and Lisa's passion for entertainment led to the family's purchase of Farquarhts in 2008. He started out as Derailed Saloon and has made the transition over the past eight years into a warm and welcoming speak easy-style venue that has become the The Pour House. Lisa and Todd have worked whole and heart to maintain a clean, safe, friendly, fun and affordable atmosphere, creating not only an evening on the city, but a real Durango experience. Lisa knows and declares that she is only as good as her people, which is evident in her appreciation of her staff and clients. She embraces everything it takes to have a place where anyone can go, alone or with a group, and feel they belong. The Maison Pour meets all your needs. Projection screens and a sound system make this place an ideal place for fundraising and other professional events. Scratch foods prepared daily using locally grown seasonal ingredients; artisan martinis and cocktails; 14 beer beers; and an affordable wine list only adds to the versatility of this bar. A large 1890s Silverton mahogany bar, a wood-burning fireplace, outdoor windows, a beautiful outdoor patio with stingy summer days, 6 large HD TVs and 3 large screens creates the perfect environment to enjoy our wide variety of appalizers and shared plates. Local and itinerant musicians and a dueling piano bar only add to the Speak Easy feel of this local bar and restaurant that you can call your own. Upon arrival, the host checks your temperature as no other place did during our 10-day road trip. I think... they take customer safety seriously! The drinks menu has a lot of interesting choices and it was hard to choose what to try. The drinks we ended up getting were fantastic! We also shared the Southwest Plateau between us instead of getting and it filled with good flavors, especially smoked pork tacos and nachos! Our waiter, Brian, was attentive, friendly and answered all questions quickly and easily. You felt like a regular he's known for a while. You can say that Brian loves being in Derailed and offers excellent service to those who are sitting in his area. More unfortunately, this restaurant is not on the OpenTable booking network. If you want, we'll you by email if this restaurant joins. Is this your restaurant?
